Delta Upsilon Pi Epsilon Honor Society

Announces

Email Invitations to UPE will be sent in the coming weeks. Watch for this limited time invitation to join CTI’s only recognized honor society.

CTI is continually looking for ways to recognize and reward outstanding scholastic student achievement. Membership in the UPE honor society is one of the best ways for outstanding faculty members and students to achieve recognition for their accomplishments. By joining UPE outstanding CTI undergraduate and graduate students become a part of the oldest and largest international honors society for computer professionals. Membership in UPE is an enjoyable way to meet fellow outstanding students, faculty and alumni, while fostering a climate of excellence and professionalism.
